The Transfiguration of Our Lord

Mission Campus 8:30, 11am

Reading Overview

The festival we celebrate this weekend, The Transfiguration of Our Lord, marks the end of the Epiphany season and the transition to the Lenten season. The Old Testament lesson from Exodus 24 tells the story of God renewing his covenant with the Children of Israel by the sprinkling of blood of sacrificed animals and by meeting with their leaders and sharing a meal. This is followed by Moses going up the mountaintop to receive the terms of God's covenant from God himself. The New Testament lesson from 2 Peter contains Peter's testimony regarding the impact that witnessing Jesus' transfiguration had on his life and ministry. He writes: "we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty" (2 Peter 1:16). The Gospel lesson today is Matthew's account of Jesus' transfiguration. Ringing throughout the ages is the voice of the Father regarding his beloved Son: "Listen to him" (Matthew 17:5b). May we, as disciples of Jesus, listen to him each day.

Additional Readings

Psalm 139
Luke 2:22-38
Revelation 5:1-14

To Our Guests:

Please add your voice and heart to the worship: sing the music and pray the prayers. Everyone is welcome at God's House, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together. Please be sure to fill out an attendance card located in the plastic folder.

Nursery Available

We love children at Trinity and are so pleased you and your children are worshipping with us today! We firmly believe the most important people influencing the faith formation of a child are found in the home – parents, grandparents, guardians. One of the key ways children learn about God is by watching their parents worship. We encourage you to keep your children with you in church to worship as a family. We also offer a staffed nursery for children 6 months to 3 years of age. At Mission, the nursery is staffed during the 9:45am and 11am services and available to parents at 8:30am. The Mission nursery is around the corner from the Sanctuary. At Shawnee, the nursery is staffed from 8:30-noon downstairs in room 103.

As we meditate on the majesty of the festival of the Transfiguration of Our Lord, we contemplate the verses of a famous Transfiguration hymn by Thomas Traeger, "Swiftly Pass the Clouds of Glory."

*Swiftly pass the clouds of glory,
Heaven's voice, the dazzling light;
Moses and Elijah vanish;
Christ alone commands the height!
Peter, James, and John fall silent,
Turning from the summit's rise
Downward toward the shadowed valley
Where their Lord has fixed His eyes.*

*Glimpsed and gone the revelation,
They shall gain and keep its truth,
Not by building on the mountain
Any shrine or sacred booth,
But by following the Savior
Through the valley to the cross
And by testing faith's resilience
Through betrayal, pain, and loss.*

*Lord, transfigure our perception
With the purest light that shines,
And recast our life's intentions
To the shape of Your designs,
Till we seek no other glory
Than what lies past Calvary's hill
And our living and our dying
And our rising by Your will.*

Prelude

Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern

BuxWV 223 | Dieterich Buxtehude

North German composer Dieterich Buxtehude (1637-1707) wrote today's prelude, a chorale fantasia on "O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright" (LSB 395). Buxtehude begins by setting the entire chorale melody in long notes, moving between soprano and bass, with varied accompanying voices. Next, he elaborates on the descending scale found at the end of the melody, then concludes the fantasia with a jig fugue based on motives from the melody.

Call to Worship and Invocation

- L Great is the Lord in Zion. He is exalted over all the nations.
- C God is Holy! Let all people praise his great and awesome name.
- L God is all powerful. He loves justice and establishes equity.
- C God is Holy! Let all people exalt him and worship at his feet.
- L The Lord our God is Holy. Praise his name, now and always.
- C God is Holy! Let all people worship him, now and forever.
- L In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
- C Amen.

Confession and Absolution

- L Peter, James, and John went up on the side of a mountain with Jesus and experienced glory. But then Peter wanted to stay and get comfortable, saying: “It’s good for us to be here.” We are also often tempted to keep the experience of the Divine to ourselves, to enjoy the company of the saints instead of going back down the mountain to continue the work of the Kingdom of God. God knows this temptation of our hearts, so let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
- C God of glory and light, forgive us when we are complacent and comfortable. Keep calling us down from your holy mountain to work for justice and peace. Keep calling us to live as your disciples. Keep reminding us to listen to your Son.

Silence for reflection on God’s Word and for self-examination.

- L Whether we hear a voice from the heavens or a still small voice in our hearts, listen carefully for the love of God. Believe and accept God’s love and live in God’s freedom. Your sins are forgiven.
- C Thanks be to God! Amen.

Till they in - ward light im - part, Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.
More and more Thy - self dis - play, Shin - ing to the per - fect day.

Prayer of the Day

- L The Lord be with you.
- C And also with you.
- L Let us pray. O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
- C Amen.

First Lesson

Exodus 24:8-18 (ESV)

And Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up, and they saw the God of Israel. There was under his feet as it were a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness. And he did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; they beheld God, and ate and drank.

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and wait there, that I may give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses rose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. And he said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we return to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever has a dispute, let him go to them."

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord dwelt on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Singing of Psalm 99

The Lord Is King, Enthroned in Might

ELLACOMBE

The Lord is king, enthroned in might on wings of cher- u- bim;
Of old to priests and prophets known with trem- bling, fear and awe,
O mag- ni- fy the God of grace who hears his peo- ple's cry, he reigns in hol- i- ness and light, bow down to wor- ship him!

he gave his peo- ple, set in stone, his sta- tutes and his law.
and come with songs be- fore his face, ex- alt his name on high!

Be- yond all maj- e- sty and praise his ho- ly name con- fess:
By those who called up- on his name the voice of God was heard, to see at last, by grace re- stored from sin and all its stains, the king of ev- er- last- ing days, who rules in right- eous- ness.

his pre- sence shown in cloud and flame when they o- beyed his word.
the ho- ly moun- tain of the Lord where God in glo- ry reigns.

Second Lesson2 Peter 1:16–21 (ESV)

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased,” we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. And we have the prophetic word more fully confirmed, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone’s own interpretation. For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy GospelMatthew 17:1–4 (ESV)

And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. And Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

Gospel Choral Anthem*This Is My Beloved Son*

Matthew 17:5 | Knut Nystedt

He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.”

Holy Gospel

Matthew 17:6-9 (ESV)

When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Rise, and have no fear.” And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Tell no one the vision, until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.”

Sermon

“A Glimpse of Glory”
 based on Matthew 17:1-9

Nicene Creed

C We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offering

O Radiant Dawn

James MacMillan (b. 1959) | Vocal Quartet

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light,
 Sun of justice:
 Come, shine on those who dwell in darkness
 and the shadow of death.
 The people who walk in darkness have seen a great light
 For those who dwell in the land of gloom, a light has come
 Come, shine on those who dwell in darkness
 and the shadow of death.
 Amen, amen, amen.

Burying of the Alleluias and Closing Hymn

Alleluia, Song of Gladness

LSB 417 | LAUDA ANIMA

We are mourning exiles who long to be in the heavenly Jerusalem, here referred to as "joyful mother." During the season of Lent we set aside our "alleluias" until Easter. Our tradition at Trinity is to bury the Alleluia Banner throughout the Lenten Season and await its resurrection on Easter morning.

Postlude

Carillon, Op. 31, No. 21

Louis Vierne

French composer and organist Louis Vierne (1870-1937) was nearly blind from birth. He showed musical talent as a young child and went on to study at the Paris Conservatory. He eventually became organist at Notre-Dame Cathedral in Paris, a position he held until his death. Today's postlude, from his Twenty-four Pieces in Free Style, is based on the peal of the carillon bells at the chapel of Castle Longpont. It is dedicated to Vierne's brother René, who died in a World War I battle shortly after its publication.

Lenten Schedule

2017 Lent and Holy Week Schedule

Our Wednesday midweek Lenten services this year will focus on God's grace as it comes to us through Confession and Absolution, Holy Baptism, and Holy Communion. In this 500th anniversary year of the Lutheran Reformation it seems appropriate to focus our attention on three of the six chief parts identified by Martin Luther in his catechisms.

"The Way of Grace" will help us to appreciate and celebrate God's grace in new and fresh ways as we seek to live as a "Community Following Jesus."

Midweek services at the Shawnee campus will be preceded by a meal at 5:30pm.

Enhance Your Lenten Season with Devotionals

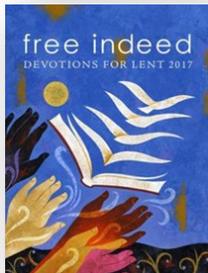

For Adults

Sacred Space for Lent 2017

By Irish Jesuits

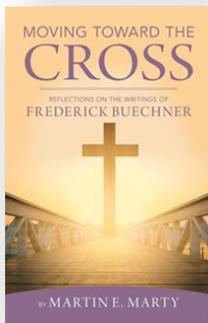

One of my spiritual mentors and I (Vicar Ben) once prayed together along the rhythms found in this book. We did this for several months or more. The rhythms are written by Irish Jesuits, and while we are Lutheran, he and I found the process very meaningful. I want to share that with you this year, and I hope you find it meaningful in how it affects your life with Jesus far beyond this season of Lent.

Free Indeed: Devotions for Lent 2017

From Augsburg Fortress

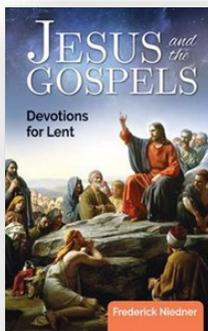

This beautiful, full-color devotional takes you through Lent with daily readings from Martin Luther's Small Catechism. Each reading is accompanied by a photo, a quote to ponder, reflection, and prayer. Free Indeed invites you to reflect on Martin Luther's guide to the basics of Christian faith during the Lenten season, and within the observance of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation.

Moving Toward the Cross

By Martin Marty

Move toward the cross of Christ this Lent with Frederick Buechner, one of the greatest Christian theological minds of our time. Each day of Lent, thought-provoking quotes from Buechner's beloved works are paired with insightful reflections by preeminent religious commentator and biblical scholar Martin E. Marty, accompanied by Bible readings and prayers. Let this depth of wisdom draw you ever closer to the very heart of Christ the crucified.

Jesus and the Gospels

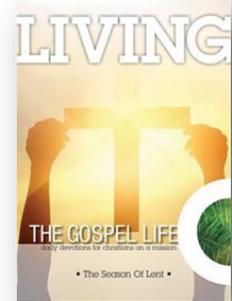

By Frederick Niedner

The texts and reflections in this booklet follow the story of Jesus' passion in a chronological order, from his call to cross-bearing discipleship to the events of the passion narrative and the discovery of the empty tomb. These devotions seek to proclaim the good news of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection by drawing on the diversity that comes from having four canonical gospels, thus providing us with a richer understanding of our Savior's sacrifice for us.

For Youth

Living the Gospel Life: The Season of Lent

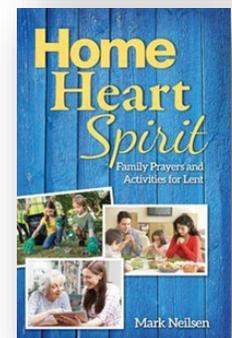

We are Christians on a mission, even in the season of Lent! The daily devotions in this booklet highlight the concepts of being sent, demonstrating faith in action, and being mission-minded each day of Lent. Suggested activities are associated with preparing our hearts, souls, and minds to reflect on the suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ and his mission for us.

For Children and Families

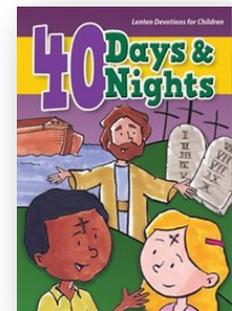

Home Heart Spirit

A Christian family is a special group of disciples of Jesus, called by our baptism and empowered by the Holy Spirit to love one another. It is in the family that we first experience the love of God, and the family is where our heart and spirit feel most at home. During Lent, we take an honest look at the way we are living our lives and ask for forgiveness and for the strength to do better. The prayers, activities and suggestions in Home Heart Spirit help families accomplish that together.

40 Days & Nights

Join in a 40-day journey this Lent with Biblical heroes from the Old and New Testaments. Spend 40 faithful days with Noah on the ark, 40 years of wilderness wandering with God's people, 40 nights on the mountaintop with Moses, 40 days with Jesus in the desert and more. The daily devotions in this booklet keep children focused on the Easter prize throughout 40 days and nights of Lenten waiting, watching, and wonder.

Hospice Care Presentation

Do you have questions about hospice care, who is eligible, how it is paid for, and what it entails?

On Friday, March 10, at 2pm Trinity will offer an opportunity to learn more about this caring service. Most everyone has had a friend or loved one who has used hospice care or is in need of it. The community is invited to join us at this informative presentation and, as always, there is no cost. The presentation will be by speakers from Compassionate Care Hospice. We look forward to seeing you there!

Choir Resumes

The Trinity Choir will resume rehearsals starting Wednesday, March 1, with the 7pm Ash Wednesday service. The choir sings for the 8:30 and 11am Sunday worship services. Rehearsals are Wednesdays, March-May from 7-8:30pm, (7:30 in Lent). The choir is open to all including new members without audition.

Call Committee Update

CALL COMMITTEE

Following the Congregational Assembly approval in January, the Call Committee began looking at students from the Concordia University System, and things have been moving very quickly ever since. Last Monday, February 20, the Call Committee interviewed two DCE students preparing for their internship, to see if they might be a fit for Trinity. Please pray for our Call Committee this week, and for these students, as we each try to prayerfully discern if this is a good match.

Milestone Ministry

Children's Ministry is currently offering Sunday school classes for these specific milestones to the preschool through fifth grade children. We will celebrate these milestones in worship, Sunday, March 5, at the 11am services at both the Mission and Shawnee campuses. Come and join us as the children share what they have learned about these important parts of their faith and lead us in worship.
