This story is for you and me
So come to Bethlehem and see!

Songs of the Christmas Story

By Rhonda Synovec

We all know and sing traditional Christmas hymns that tell the true story of Jesus' birth. On Sunday mornings the children have been discovering the rich stories of these carols through interactive lessons which reveal God's plan for our lives: the birth of a Savior - Jesus! We have learned the stories of the following hymns in our time together.

Joy to the World!

Bible Point: God has a plan.

Scriptures: Isaiah Talks About a Savior King (Isaiah 9:2-7)

Silent Night

Bible Point: God's plan is surprising.

Scriptures: Jesus Is Born in Bethlehem (Luke 2:1-7)

Angels We Have Heard on High

Bible Point: God's plan is for everyone.

Scriptures: The Angels Visit the Shepherds (Luke 2:8-14)

O Come, All Ye Faithful

Bible Point: God's plan is something to celebrate.

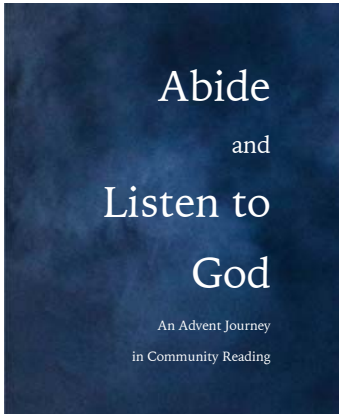

Scriptures: The Shepherds Tell About Jesus' Birth (Luke 2:14-20; John 1:12, 14)

Advent Devotionals

By Pastor Ben Vineyard

When I found your words,
I devoured them;

They became my joy and the happiness of my heart.

– Jeremiah 15:16

Will you read with me? Will you listen for the voice of God, the voice of Life in this season of Advent? I want to hear the Word of God. I want my cavernous heart to be filled with the Presence of Christ and the Spirit of God. I want the same for you, for all of us, all ages and stages among us.

Follow me in these readings, these questions, these prompts toward prayer. Let's listen every day and know that we are not alone in this pursuit of God but know that God pursues us and that we, together, are listening with one common attention.

Advent devotionals are found in the foyer at each campus. Please take one and use it to prepare your heart for Christmas.

If you would like to receive the same content (maybe a little more) in an email each day, Pastor Ben will be sending those out early each morning. Sign up at tlcms.org to receive that daily email!

In addition to the above advent devotional, another resource is available for young families at Trinity and Trinity's preschool families.

upon this world until he returns as promised. These special worship services offer family friendly elements woven within our worship.

Listening Event Consensus Report

By Pastor Phil Cook

Over the summer and early fall, more than fifty members of Trinity participated in a series of “Listening Events” regarding our hopes and desires for Youth and Family Ministry. As we listened and talked and discussed, we arrived at these five points as a summary of our shared desires. This document is being used by our Call Committee as we seek a new Youth Family Minister, and will be used by the youth ministry team as we continue to disciple the youth of our congregation. It is shared here, in full, so that we as a whole congregation can come together to support our youth and their families.

Listening Sessions Consensus Report

Big Question: What are our desires for our family life ministry?

Relationships: Youth and family ministry is built upon deep, committed relationships in which people feel known, loved, and cared for. Relational ministry forms a sacred community, in which the people of God experience a relationship with each other and with God. This sacred community involves meaningful interaction outside of just Sunday morning, life on life interaction where the faith is modeled by others as it is lived out. Relational ministry creates an environment in which youth feel safe exploring deep questions. Relational ministry encourages participation across ages. It recognizes both the importance of youth building relationships with one another, and the importance of building relationships across generations. It strategically creates events where youth have a chance to meet with other youth, as well as family events where youth and parents are involved together.

Discipleship: Discipleship is about more than just head knowledge; it is about a disciple learning to become like the rabbi (Jesus). It helps students get to know Jesus more clearly (orthodoxy) and helps them to follow him more closely in their lives (orthopraxy). It sees discipleship as a lifelong process of meeting people where they are, and helping them to take the next step in following Him, from meeting Him for the first time to becoming a disciple who makes disciples. Discipleship seeks to help youth and families view all of life’s many issues through Christian lenses. Youth and family ministry seeks to equip families to disciple their children through devotional resources, marriage and parenting classes, etc. While this person may not be an expert in all of these areas, he or she will know how to connect students and families to other resources that do exist. He or she uses engaging programs and events to draw youth and families toward Christ.

Service: Youth and family ministry seeks to cultivate faith by having youth and adults serve in ministry. This involves serving both within the church community and in the larger community and world around us. Service challenges youth to move beyond comfort to compassion, and encourages them to put their faith into action. By learning through doing, youth identify their individual strengths, and grow in grace, compassion, and leadership abilities.

Youth Focus: The youth and family minister will be a relational leader, who knows the students personally themselves, and who builds a leadership team of other adults, possibly including interns, who know the students personally and invest in them relationally. This staff person is dedicated to the needs and concerns of junior and senior high youth. He or she respects the abilities of youth, and seeks to challenge and develop them as leaders. While maintaining a focus on youth and their families, this staff person also sees ministry as a part of a larger whole, moving individuals from childhood through confirmation, high school ministry, college and young adult faith, into the whole life of the church.

Communication: Accomplishing all of the above requires clear, consistent, and continuous communication with students and parents. Good communication keeps the congregation informed and creates broad ownership of the ministry. This person will make use of all communication vehicles available: screens, bulletin, e-News, Messenger, targeted direct emails, social media tools like Facebook/Twitter, etc. This person will also have intentional one-to-one communication with students and parents. He or she will seek to maintain two-way lines of communication, by not just broadcasting messages, but also hearing feedback, questions, and concerns.

Christmas Caroling—December 8

By Tom Perry

When: December 8, 1pm, Mission campus

What: Caroling at assisted living facilities

Who: All ages are encouraged to come

Transportation: Carpool from Mission campus, return before 4pm

On Friday, December 8, members from Trinity will again go Christmas caroling to some assisted living facilities where Trinity members are residents.

Last year this was well received by both the carolers and those being caroled to. The range in age of those caroling was from 4 to 90+ years old. For some, this was how they were able to enjoy Christmas. It does not matter if you are a concert soloist or have trouble carrying a tune in a bucket. You are needed and wanted. We will meet in the foyer at the Mission campus at 1pm, perhaps have a cup of cider, maybe warm up, then off we go. We will carpool as best we can. We will first sing at the Healthcare Resort of Shawnee Mission (76th and Antioch) and are scheduled to sing at 1:30pm. From there we will travel to Addington Place (79th and Somerset) and sing at the memory unit and then to the rest of the residents. Then it is back to church. If you have any questions or suggestions, let Tom know, Tom@tlcms.org. Noel!

We are grateful for your continued giving as contributions are trending

At Shawnee we plan to add concrete stairs from the parking lot to Midland Road to improve the effectiveness of the overflow parking at the Christots parking lot.

in mind for your year-end contribution giving.

In the second half of our fiscal year we will be focusing more of our attention on discipleship. You are encouraged to consider how following Jesus is reflected in your financial support of his kingdom.

We know with God's help, we can do all things. Please prayerfully consider how God has blessed and enriched your lives. Thank you for your continued generosity at Trinity, as we continue to be "A Community Following Jesus."

As the calendar year ends, generally thoughts of expanded generosity are also abounding. We know that there are many worthy causes that are asking for your contributions. Please keep the ministries at Trinity

11% above our year to date budget. Year-to-date expenses continue to be slightly under budget. While both are good news, we have also experienced some

Memory Verse: Micah 7:7

I watch in hope for the Lord,
I wait for God my Savior;
my God will hear me.

Shawnee Seniors Christmas Reception

By Tom Perry

You are invited! On December 14 you are invited to a holiday reception at the Shawnee campus from 2-4pm. This will be an opportunity to meet and to renew acquaintances with those fellow members age 60+.

Gloria Garrelts will help with some Christmas goodies and we will probably sing a carol or two. We might take the opportunity to see if the group wishes to expand their imprint at church. We are planning to help a family and you will have the opportunity to give a free will offering at that time. I hope to see you there. Please RSVP to Tom@tlcms.org so that we can gauge the amount of goodies needed. Merry Christmas!
