Here’s what I noticed as we observed where God sent us, where we represented Jesus and you, our friends at Trinity. The way we as a church have loved our neighbors in Guatemala continues to fill my heart with peace. We’ve shared money for food, shared for houses, shared for care and love. We’ve been sharing Jesus together, you and me—those of us who could go to Guatemala and those who stayed in the States. We’re in this together. I am so happy we are in this together.

We as a congregation along with the Trinity Foundation are currently involved in food programs for women and children of Santa Catarina and Chuchipaca, Guatemala. We provide food and nourishment for many women and their children in these places (I’ve lost count, and it recently was increased). These women are often left by their husbands as the men chase down bottles. Many men die from addiction also.

In Panajachel we continue to work as a congregation to build a house for those who need it. Every year we build a house for another family. These are small homes, but are filled to the brim with gratitude when families move in.

This work connects to the Gospel proclamation for these women, children, and men: God loves you, forgives you, and cherishes you in Jesus. You are beautiful. You are eternally loved. Yet somehow, year after year, its our team who returns the most filled by this message, this reality.

Here are the stories.

PANAJACHEL, GUATEMALA - Dear Patricia, what a gift to see you smile and to work side by side with you and your children. Your homemade juice from cantaloupe was new for me, new for my favorite fruit. I liked that. We dug and found so many rocks where your new home will be. We found marbles and even a small, blue toy soldier. It felt good to move the garbage out and to start digging those footers. Walls will be up soon and we all look forward to seeing your smile then. I bet it will be even wider, if that's possible.

TRINITY GUATEMALA MISSION, SANTA CATARINA

(July 18 at 6:36 PM) -- We sat beside one another and shared Tampico juice. You said thank you for the food sponsorship in Spanish ("gracias") and Ceqchiquel Mayan ("Matiox" - pronounced, "mah-tee-osh"). You thanked God. I walked to you and we met eye to eye. I poured water on my hand and made the sign of the cross on each of your foreheads, you widows Jesus knew so well.

Then you prayed. Some of you stood. Others sat. I kneeled, wanting to be flooded by your words, your blessing. You prayed all at once, some of you in Spanish, some in Ceqchiquel. Your prayer wove together into a rhythm, almost singing, almost gentle chanting. I knew in that moment that the Lord knew your voice, your voice that comes together into that song, very well. That is why we came.

Trinity Lutheran Church has been sponsoring this food program that helps provide these widows with food and nutrition. We also looked at rehabbing some of their homes. I am proud of the people who asked me to be their pastor. Blessed to be among them.

CHUCHIPACA, GUATEMALA

(July 19) - Sweet mothers, you bathed us in your prayers, fed us with your traditions, and looked deep into our eyes, knowing something of us that we cannot yet grasp. We shared this meal, this celebration with pine needles on the earthen ground--per tradition. We celebrated with gifts. For me, the stoles you made by your own weaving. For you, the sweaters and shoes our friends at home collected for you.

We laughed together beneath the flap of origami birds. Peace from God filled our hearts that day. Today.

CHUCHIPACA, GUATEMALA

(July 19) - Dear children, I tried to think of my boys through your eyes but my eyes welled too soon. I could not go all the way down that path. So I looked at your faces again and saw such happiness within your world, within the celebration we were part of together. Jesus spoke of you, you little ones. He held you and cherished you. He still does. Oh he does. And so do we.

SAN ANTONIO, GUATEMALA

(July 20) - We walked steep pathways to visit, to say "hi." We heard your pottery stand is the most famous in Guatemala so we had to see you. We saw you painting pottery and felt a new impression on our hearts, remembering that God continues to shape us, paint us, and send us.

We stepped into your church at the top of the path, ascending into the heavens above Lake Atitlan. When we descended toward the lake our boat ride was bumpy. I loved the feel of that wind and hop and remembered that Jesus stood above such waters step by step.

REMEMBERING: CHUCHIPACA, GUATEMALA

There we were, together for a celebration day. It's just one day past and I miss your smiles, our laughter. Like Christmas, our celebration will return. Like a child, I've begun counting the days. I promise: my friends and I will keep you in our hearts. We will keep looking for gifts for you. We pray the food program through Trinity nourishes you well. I will try to find a Spanish origami book and hundreds of squares of colored paper, the brightest, to match your trajes tipicas.

IXIMCHE, GUATEMALA

(July 21) - We were quiet in the van, hearts too full to speak, dwelling on all we saw and heard of you. We heard that an ancient Mayan ruin site wasn't far off the road, so we decided to detour. We were blessed to touch those rocks and steps and imagine, as best we could, your ancient ways.

The guide (Alex) said when the Spaniards came and destroyed everything the surviving Mayans of this area, Iximche (pronounced: "eesh-eem-chay") fled toward Lake Atitlan and the high regions by the lake. That's you and those were your ancestors.

I'm sorry you had to go through that, to carry that chapter in your people's story, your story. I'm sorry... I don't want to see those chapters for anyone again...

I am sorry that even now some of you flee to find a refuge, a home, a safe place. I know there's talk of fear of you, but you and I have made many chapters together now and I don't believe those who say otherwise. You are beautiful and kind. You are able to see time in a way I cannot yet grasp, but want to learn. You know an art to life that would benefit so many of my friends at home who feel harangued by things of little value.

Let's continue to write better stories together, you and me, you and us. Peace fills the heart.

ANTIGUA, GUATEMALA

Now we return home, hearts full of so many stories. We paused for prayer and reflection on a hill overlooking Antigua yesterday. We sat quietly, wanting our souls to catch up with our bodies so we could make sense of everything.

Tonight we will embrace loved ones we left behind. We'll see them with eyes still glowing, still pondering the beauty we saw.

What will come of this? What will come of me?

We're coming home to you Kansas City. We love you and miss you. There are so many stories. There are so many decisions. Peace overflows the heart.

Sunday School Kickoff and Children's Ministry Installation

By Julie Messbarger

August 19, 9:45am

Mission Campus

August 26, 9:45am

Shawnee Campus

Welcome to the start of another great year of Sunday School! We hope this information will give you a glimpse into what is happening in the life of our children at Trinity. We are excited about this new year and hope you are too!

Mark your calendars now for Sunday School Kickoff. Kickoff will be on August 19 at 9:45 am at the Mission campus and August 26 at 9:45 at the Shawnee campus. This will be a parent/child event where we will share pertinent information about the upcoming year. You and your child will meet the Sunday School teachers and visit the classrooms. At least one parent from each family is expected to attend with their children. We will then continue the kickoff celebration with fellowship, fun, and breakfast on the back lawn of the Mission campus and the playground of the Shawnee campus.

In the 8:30 and 11am services on these days there will be an installation of all Children's Ministry volunteers.

Blessing of the Backpacks

By Rhonda Synovec

August 19, Mission
Campus

August 26, Shawnee Campus

8:30 and 11am Services

Get your child's school year off to a great start by helping to keep God on their minds during school. Have your child bring his or her backpack to the 8:30 or 11am worship services for a Blessing of the Backpacks. We will pray for your child and offer a special blessing for them as they enter into the new school year.

Mentoring at Mission Campus

By Julie Messbarger

All children from second to fifth grade are assigned a youth or adult mentor. This is crucial to forming relationships at Trinity. Each mentor volunteers his or her time to make connections with each child. It is important that children come for Sunday School by 9:35am so that they can spend the full ten minutes with their mentor. Children two years through first grade will spend this first 10 minutes participating in classroom activities.

Stewardship Corner

By Pastor Mark Schulz

Our lives revolve around the church seasons of Advent/Christmas, Lent/Easter, and Pentecost as well as climatological seasons of Summer, Fall, Winter, and Spring. So too, does our financial position—both personal and the church’s. It always seems that there are cycles of up and down; unexpected expenses as well as unanticipated income. The 2017/2018 fiscal year is such a season, where unanticipated expenses landed us above budget and income landed us below budget. Expenses ended up 1.7% over budget and income ended up (1.3%) below budget. Despite these realities, thanks to several years of strong financial results, we are still starting the year in a sound financial position. I am always reminded to keep the “big picture” in mind as well as the ebbs and flows that are a part of life. What has Trinity accomplished? Continued exceptional worship, both in sermons as well as music. Our youth program is growing as we prepare to extend a Call to a Youth Family Minister. Our youth are excited and participating in youth functions as well as worship servants. VBS continues to be a beacon to the community with 230 children participating this summer, and our Preschool is nearly full for the upcoming school year, with a waiting list for all of our morning classes. Our seniors ministry is being used as a model for other congregations to emulate. We’ve made progress in chipping away at facility improvements (basic infrastructure in HVAC as well as interior upgrades) and added the columbarium at the Mission campus. So, as we keep the big picture in mind, God, through you, is making a tremendous impact on our members and community. While 2017/2018 ended below our projections, your OneFund pledges for 2018/2019 are indicating an overall increase that will achieve our request for a 5% increase in giving year over year to support our current and expanding ministries. However, we cannot become complacent. We have goals this year that are a stretch. We also have a God that can do much more than we can imagine! Please keep Trinity in your prayers, and faithfully consider how your gifts to God are reflective of His presence and generosity to you.

God’s Blessings!

Rushton School Supply Drive

By Rhonda Synovec

We are again continuing our important ministry to assist with supporting low-income families at Rushton Elementary School. Help us send the children off to school with all the supplies they need to give them a jump start toward success by donating school supplies. Bags with lists of supplies attached were handed out following worship. Please consider making a donation and bring your bag back to church by Saturday and Sunday, August 4-5. Visit tlcms.org to view a list of supplies. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

Congregational Assembly

By Pastor Mark Schulz

August 12, 1pm Mission Campus

The Call Committee has been hard at work with a series of interviews and meetings with the three candidates for Youth Family Minister. The Call Committee will make a presentation and recommendation for extending a call to the top candidate. A special congregational assembly has been called for Sunday, August 12, at 1pm at the Mission campus for the purpose of extending a call. Childcare will be provided.

Childcare Positions Available

By Jo Ann Emerson

Trinity Lutheran Church is currently seeking applicants for the following positions. This would be a wonderful way to make a little extra money while having fun working with God's children in a Christian environment.

- Wednesday morning Ladies' Bible Class childcare provider. Shawnee Campus. Hours are 9:30-11:30 am throughout the school year. You would be responsible for supervising up to
- 8 children between the ages of infant-Kindergarten. Pay begins at $10/hour for an adult 18 and above. Schedule is weekly, September 2018 – May 2019.

 - Sunday morning Nursery childcare provider. Mission Campus. Hours are 8:15 am - 12:15 pm. A monthly schedule is created to coordinate with your availability. Applicants 14 years and older are encouraged to apply. Pay varies according to experience level. Schedule is monthly with an immediate need beginning August 2018.

All positions require a background check, application and orientation training. If you love working with children and are interested in learning more or applying, please contact Jo Ann Emerson at joann@tlcms.org or 913-563-5280.

Time to Order Your Lutheran Witness

By Gretchen Hollman

Orders due August 5.
Payment due August 31.

How do we as Lutheran Christians respond to the world around us?

How do we share a biblical perspective on current issues? How can we be better beacons of God's light and care for those around us?

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod offers an excellent resource that can be delivered right to your home or accessed online—

The Lutheran Witness. As the tagline of the magazine states, the magazine helps in "Interpreting the contemporary world from a Lutheran Christian perspective." The flagship magazine of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, The Lutheran Witness is a monthly publication (11 issues per year) that offers synodical news, features, columns, Q&A's, and more.

Subscribe to The Lutheran Witness for only $18 annually and download the app to get the latest issues delivered directly to your electronic devices. Visit cph.org/witness to learn more. Orders are being taken in the church office, online, and in the foyer at each campus. Sign up for your subscription today!

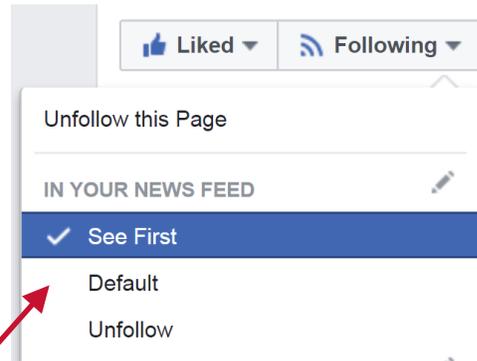

Trinity Is on Facebook!

By Gretchen Hollman

Trinity has a Facebook page! Spread the word! We encourage you to check it out and follow us. Anyone can post to the site, but all posts will be approved by Trinity staff. The goal for our Facebook page is to continue to strive for new ways to communicate with our members. Facebook will also provide Trinity with additional tools to communicate with the community in ways that are engaging and targeted.

Did you know that if you follow a Facebook page, you will only see a small percentage of posts? To see all of Trinity's posts, please click the "Following" pulldown and then click "See First."

LWML Coffee and Tea Sale

By Elfriede Mohling

LWML coffee and tea sale will be held between worship services at the Mission campus on Sunday, August 12. Be sure to stop by the table to select from the wide variety of flavors available. Selected flavors are also available for purchase in the gift shop between sale dates. The large purple and white mite box will be available on the coffee table to deposit your loose change. One of the many mission projects being supported by your donation is Providing Food and the Gospel to Starving Children. Learn more about this project from the poster behind the mite box. Thank you for your support!

Best Choice Bar Codes

By Ruth Hanusch

Thank you to all who turned in Best Choice bar codes after the last Messenger's request article. I now have 975 ready to turn in and need only 25 more to reach 1,000. Then I will be collecting toward another 1,000 needed before the end of the year. The bar code looks like the image to the right. Please place bar codes in the jar at the welcome center at the Mission campus or they can be placed in the basket in the Mission campus entryway anytime. Thank you for helping me make life better for many people in need.

Summertime Hymn Sing

By Ben Spalding

Sunday, August 19
8:30 and 11am services

Mission Campus

We will begin our worship together with our final Summertime Hymn Sing! This is a great opportunity to sing your favorite hymns of the faith. If you have a favorite hymn, plan on sharing it that morning as we join with the heavenly chorus in praising our wonderful Creator!

A Postcard from Wittenberg, July 27 and 30

By Tim and Pat Reaman

Deacon Tim Reaman is serving as a host for the fifth time for the Wittenberg English Ministry (WEM) in Wittenberg, Germany until the beginning of August. WEM conducts Lutheran-led, English-language worship and chapel services at the historic Lutheran churches in Wittenberg from April-October annually.

The current WEM Pastor, Mytch Dorvilier, Fargo, ND had trans-Atlantic flight delays and did not arrive in time for the Wednesday services. Leading the two devotions that day “fell” to me.

Devotions in the Kapelle at 3:00 pm. There were 27 in attendance.

There were attendees from the USA, Germany, and a group of 12 men from Rwanda.

A nice chat afterwards with some of the Rwandans that were interested in the English Ministry!

A 4:00 special devotional service in the Sacristy of the Town Church. A group of 45 from Collette Tours in the USA including NC, MI, OH, and MN. It was a full house!

Memory Verse

Christ is the end of the law so that there may be Righteousness for everyone who believes.
Romans 10:4

A few weeks ago, we took a short get away trip to one of our favorite hiking spots—National Park Sachsische Schweiz (Saxon Switzerland). It is on the Elbe River very near the Czech Republic. We were there several years ago. The views are spectacular!

Some beautiful lakes!

The hike up is sometimes a bit steep.

The views of the Elbe River valley are very scenic.

The Bastei—a very famous rock formation including a picturesque pedestrian bridge.

The hike down!

Bowties for Babies Gala

By Alexandra's House

Have you or do you know someone who may be pregnant and know their baby will die during pregnancy or soon after birth due to an adverse prenatal diagnosis, or has a newborn and has received a terminal diagnosis? Or are you a family who has experienced an unexpected loss of a child due to miscarriage, fetal demise, stillbirth, SIDS, or any cause? There is a place in Kansas City known as Alexandra's House that offers healing and support for parents and families, free of charge during pregnancy and after the death of a child. To help support this nonprofit and its services, the Friends of Alexandra's House hosts a gala called "Bow Ties for Babies." This year's event will be held on October 5 at the The Venue in Leawood with a silent and live auction and dinner. Tickets are $150 per person. For more information visit bowtiesforbabies.com or call 913-486-9788. Also visit www.alexandras-house.com to learn more about this special ministry.

Faith Family Reunion: Coping with Prodigals

By Our Saviour Lutheran Church

Saturday, September 8 9am - 3pm

Our Saviour Lutheran Church
Kansas City, Kansas

For Whom: Parents,
Church Leadership,
Pastors, Family Members
with prodigals

When children have left the church and faith in Jesus Christ, parents that are left behind often find themselves feeling isolated and alone. The feelings of guilt and shame can become overwhelming as they wonder what they did wrong, could have done better, or what they failed to do. The end result makes parents feel as though they are living solo with the need to carry this burden on their own. We invite you to begin the journey of discovery together with us in a one-day retreat and other like-minded parents, as we explore the notion that we might all share similar stories and that maybe we are really not alone on this road. During this retreat, we hope to provide you a warm, comfortable, loving and non-threatening environment where you might feel the freedom to express yourself. We hope that this time together can maybe “little by little” break down the walls of shame and secrecy. As we join together with one another we hope to create a community within the church family where you feel safe to open up a dialogue and begin the conversation with others. We are not going to “tell you what to do” or “tell you what you could have done better” but rather offer you a time where you can hear from a prodigal that has returned to the faith and to be surrounded by other parents going through similar situations in life. Our goal is to have you leave with hope, realizing that you are not alone and maybe even forming new friendships. Help families welcome home family members who have wandered away.

All of us have someone in our lives who has strayed away from faith in Jesus Christ. How can we reach out not only to the prodigal but to the parents, families, and friends of prodigals who struggle to know what to do?

Helpful Articles for Seniors

By Tom Perry

<http://tlcms.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/Hey-Boomers-Let%E2%80%99s-Step-up-and-Be-the-Elders-the-Church-Desperately-Needs-Right-Now.pdf>

Recently, Pastor Phil brought to my attention an article from a senior blog. In it the blogger writes of seniors in the church making an intentional effort to be mentors to others in our congregations. This is something we at Trinity are trying to do, but he puts it in clearer terms than I do. I invite you to read the article we have reproduced, and I invite your reaction.

Our congregation is similar to the make-up of most LCMS congregations with respect to age demographics. Well over 25% of the congregation is of retirement age and beyond. Many, if not most of us, have been members of Christian congregations for decades. Though we always have new things to learn and need to be open to new ways of doing things, we have a sense of comfort in living our lives as Children of God. We have much to offer our younger family, whether that be children, youth, or adults.

In the next few months I will be looking for new and fun ways of doing just that. If you have ideas or areas where you would like to get involved, please contact me. Please take the opportunity to read these articles and let me know your reaction. Links to the articles are available at tlcms.org.
